MELROSE HIGH SCHOOL

PROLOGUE

The class of 1979 - born at the beginning of the 1960's and graduating at the end of the 1970's - is "the last hurrah." We have grown enough and we have learned enough to assume responsibility for ourselves. We have all experienced many new things during our stay at Melrose High: getting our driver's licenses, going to our first prom, grimacing over our first chemistry lab report, shaking over our first college interview, and wilting over our first college rejection.

These are all part of our initiation into adulthood. It is time though, to move on, carrying with us our acquired skills; it is time to undertake new enterprises. And now, as we proudly become the newest additions to the real world, we throw our caps into the air and shout one last

"HURRAH!"

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

The other editors and I feel we have produced the best yearbook possible. It has taken a tremendous amount of time, energy, and effort, but we are quite pleased with the results.

The theme, which is actually two-fold, is very clearly stated in the prologue, which appears on page one.

Many times we do not realize the passage of time until it is too late. We have tried to capture the life of a senior, and the manner in which students revolve around the mood which is created here at Melrose High School. The cover clearly depicts the culmination of our senior year-our graduation.

Our childhood and our lives as public school students have come to a close. We are ending a chapter in a time period of our lives. This ending is very similar to a sunset. As one day comes to a close, a new day begins immediately. We have completed one part of our lives, and we are now ready to begin another period. Look to this day. . . for yesterday is but a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision. But today well-lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope. - The Sanskrit

I wish to extend all of my thanks to everyone who has contributed to this yearbook, and also to the senior class. Most of all, I wish to thank all of the editors and staff members who worked so hard in producing this yearbook.

I feel we have achieved our goal - to produce a comprehensive history of our high school years. So take the time to read it, flip through the pages and reminisce. This is your yearbook and we have enjoyed compiling it.

> Doug Emery Editor-in-Chief

THE COVER

The cover was drawn by Arleen Connolly. It is an original pen and ink drawing, illustrating our theme "The last hurrah."

THE LAST FIRST DAY

As I sit here in this patch of morning sun, school is a distant memory. Summer has never evaporated so quickly before. I do not believe I am going back to school. I will walk through those doors for my last first day of high school. I am a senior.

I slept well last night. Excitement did not snatch sleep away from me. No, it was just another summer night. When I was a child, my thoughts were of new school clothes, new friends, new teachers. I imagine the classrooms, the sound of school bells, the feel of freshly waxed floors beneath feet tight in new shoes, the smell of new books. On waking, I would hurry along so as not to be late on the first day.

Today, I sit lazily savoring every last moment of the summer. Curiosity does not excite me. I have been through this eleven times before; I know what to expect. Most of the faces in the hallway will not be new to me.

Yet, somehow today is different. As I walk through the heavy glass doors into the dark coolness of the building, I start my last first day of school. It is the first in a year which will be filled with lasts. It will be a good year. A year of parties and school gatherings. A year to make decisions. A year to be carefree. A year. My last year at Melrose High School. And this, my last first day, begins it all.

ADVANCED AGONY

Into every student's life must fall a twenty page term paper. This term paper inevitably must be footnoted - who ever said that life was easy? - and meticulously typed. (Hey Ma!)

There are two basic types of term paper writers. The first, the conscientious student, uses all the time allotted to him and works diligently. This individual can be found buried beneath a mountain of 3x5 cards and a truckload of library books. These scholars craft their term papers carefully, pass them in before the deadline, and incite general nausea and insecurity among the rest of the class.

The second species of writer is the Sunday shut-in. This student locks himself in a room on Sunday - the paper is due on Monday. Armed only with a typewriter, a desk lamp, and one or two insignificant books, he writes his paper as he goes along, frequently using his imagination to fill in the gaps between the facts. Hours later, the disheveled, bleary-eyed shut-in emerges from the room, term paper in ink-smeared hand. Once again, he has managed to carouse six parties, check out a friend's new car, catch "Saturday Night Live," play coed touch football at the Common, and still produce that wonderful term paper. Unfortunately, his grades tend to reflect the amount of time he takes to prepare his assignments. When the manuscripts are returned, this student can be found hunched in a corner of the classroom, scowling at the teacher.

There is a little bit of both these characters in each of us. We all tend to work earnestly on those subjects which we like and procrastinate on those others which are not as inspiring. So, next time you agonize over a term paper, remember, you are not alone.

ONLY YESTERDAY . . .

It is amazing how quickly time can pass. You don't realize its passage until it's too late. Our three years at Melrose High School have come to a close. It's hard to believe we're seniors, ready to graduate and venture into the world. It seems like only yesterday . . .

Sophomore orientation in a hot cafe. The school seemed so large and we felt so small. Yet we managed and gradually came to find our way around the school — not without asking a few questions. "No, there is no room 405, kid!" "Yes, the cafetorium is on the second floor!"

We recovered by the end of our sophomore year; most of us had things straight. Now we could take a look at where we'd be spending the next two years. "Seniors have so much fun. I wish I got out on early release. Ha ha ha, underclassmen!"

Junior year was hardest of all. "Do we have to take all these tests?" PSAT's, SAT's; it seemed like a conspiracy! College? Who thought about it then? Suddenly, it was goodbye class of '78 and we were the seniors.

It's over just like that. You sit there and think, "Where did the time go? What did I do?" We have learned from each other and have grown. We have come into our own. So long, Melrose High, it's been an experience well worth having.

See you in September? Sorry guys, not this time!

NORTHERN HIGHLIGHTS

I must admit that I was confused on the sixth of September when I stood in front of Melrose High School. With me were 1500 other students-all trying to get through the same door. When I heard a bell (it sounded more like a fire alarm to me), I was still at my locker turning 10 to the right, 12 to the left . . . and then some Swedish words that I won't even try to translate.

The next stop was homeroom. We did many strange rituals. There was a silent meditation that never lasted more than a tenth of a second, and a public address system that nobody listened to. The voice droned on . . .

When the bell (?) sounded, we could start fighting our way to the classrooms. If I found the right room and entered it, I still thought that I was wrong. With the help of some understanding students and prominently displayed room numbers, I was assured that I had made the right selection.

The language barrier was another major hurdle for me. The way that students speak is quite different from what my English teachers at home taught me. "I'm bummed out!" "Wicked good!" "Ex!" "This is a veg!" I doubt that I will ever find some of these expressions in my English grammar book. The most useful phrases for me were "What? Can you say that again?" Excuse me, you are speaking too fast!"

The most positive thing about MHS is that there are so many extra-curricular activities to choose from. There are so many different and interesting things to be involved in! That is very important, because it makes school more than just a place you have to go to.

In Sweden, we are required to attend school for only nine years. If you wish to attend a high school, or gymnasium as it is called, you must apply and be accepted. You choose a major such as science, language, or mechanics, and are placed in a class with twenty-five other students with the same career interests. These schools are from one to four years long. Some of these schools give a final education and others are just preparation for additional schooling.

It is easier to get good grades in American schools than in Swedish schools. You really have to be something to receive a 5, which is the Swedish equivalent of an A. If the national average is a D in a certain course, the Swedish teacher must scale the grades so that the class average is a D. Most students get C's, but absolutely no more than five students receive A's. This creates intense competition between students and rivalry and arguements result.

In Sweden, the government pays for education. We get school supplies and lunches free. Lunch is fifty minutes long and you are allowed to eat as much as you want. I don't know if I would let some of the MHS football players in there!

The students are responsible for themselves in Swedish schools. If we are absent or late, we take care of it ourselves. Few people skip more than they have to because it is the student who decides if he wants to continue his education.

The most important thing in a school is the people. The students at Melrose High are very much like the students back home. Your friends and your teachers are what you will miss when you graduate. Although some times were good and some were bad, you will never forget your high school years. I am glad that I have had the opportunity to attend Melrose High School. It is an experience that I will never forget.

Over two hundred girls signed up to play in the Annual Powder Puff Football Game, the largest turnout in the game's history. The fifty players were chosen through a lottery system and were placed on a team. To accomodate the turnout the game was extended to six periods to insure playing time for each participant.

The White Russians and the Bloody Marys battled to see who was the more potent team. Although the Russians were the victors, it was no easy win. The Marys lost the squeaker 28-26.

Psyching up the crowd during the game were a squad of the hairiest, sexiest cheerleaders ever to appear at MHS. No matter which team you rooted for, you couldn't help but enjoy the antics of all involved.

"I'd rather fight than switch!" - Joanne Flannigan

The White Russians dominated the beginning and the end of the game. They won the toss and scored the final touchdown in the waning minutes. The interim, however, was evenly matched. Darcy Davis ran 65 yards for the first touchdown after receiving the ball on the opening kickoff. Donna DeAngelis and Darcy Davis starred for the Russians while Sue Donovan and Ellen Cerretani led the Marys.

Mountaineering

The club's first expedition began in May, 1978, with a 41/2 mile hike through a beautiful forest. The group successfully solved the problem of crossing a ten-foot wide river by using a combination of fallen trees and rocks. Waist-deep snows and steep slopes made it a hard trek, but the intrepid climbers finally reached Galehead hut. A smaller group went on to conquer the summit of South Twin Mountain. The next day, the group hiked to the top of Galehead Mountain in a rainstorm. The final challenge was another fording of the rain-swollen Gale River.

September, 1978 found the club learning the rudiments of rock climbing. Each student practiced his skills and the next day put them to work on Kinsman

Ridge.

October, 1978 brought the long-awaited camping trip at LaFayette Campground. The students climbed the Falling Waters trail to the summit of Little Haystack. From there, the club conquered Franconia Ridge to Mt. Lincoln and returned to the campground by way of Bridle Path.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Four years and two advisors ago, our fathers brought forth a new notion, conceived in confusion but dedicated to the proposition that all students should have a voice in their affairs.

As sophomores and juniors, we were engaged in a great and difficult chore, testing whether our Congress, or any Congress so conceived and so dedicated, could long endure. We faced confusion, a hesitant administration, and an unsure membership. Despite this, the Congress pulled together to become an active, efficient body. Class elections were run smoothly; a festive Christmas party has become an annual affair; and members have helped organize the Powder Puff football game, a bloodmobile, and a paper drive. Official rules and procedures have been drafted to dissipate confusion, and periodic administrative attendance has helped to strengthen the Congress.

Now, as seniors, we can say that we have a Congress that shall endure, and that government of the students, by the students, and for the students is a way of life at MHS.

HONOR SOCIETY

With a background of flowers and classical music, 52 members of the class of 1979 were inducted into the Philomathean Chapter of the National Honor Society last spring. Each member pledged to uphold the standards of the society: character, scholarship, leadership and service. This year, members' efforts have made a tutoring program for junior high, senior high, and special needs students a successful, rewarding experience for all involved. Wtih the help of an active membership and a new advisor, Miss Norwood, plans are also underway for the presentation of films and guest lecturers. The National Honor Society is a strong tradition and shows every indication of remaining so for years to come.

DEBATE

Once again, the MHS Debate Club had a super season. Led by Coach Freeman Frank, the club travelled up and down the East Coast, winning trophy after trophy. In December, the club held its first annual Appreciation Night. The seniors will never forget: 400 choruses of "DRINK", test patterns, case at 500 feet, Dartmouth, UMASS, Bronx, the battle of Harvard Yard, boots, A, B, or C?, Northampton, the record is seven, "Got a hairdryer?", pianos, jeans, tab room, carbon monoxide poisoning, the wastebasket, mosaic station wagon, "What's my name, Freeman?", skinny Asians and the duck disad, poetry, fleeting flirtations, 'The Congo', Dan Webster, lovelorn but hypertensive, "And we have the ENTIRE third floor!", Beethoven's birthday, the gym, always the back row, the Suffolk sweep, Manchester, the traitor, parties, "He is so cute!", and our beloved Uncle Freeman!

BAND AND BAND FRONT

The Art Club was formed this year under the direction of Ms. Plume for those students interested in expanding their knowledge of art after regular school hours. Geared to the special interests of its members, the club focused on techniques in art media. Drawing and painting at various locations was emphasized and trips to galleries, museums, and artist's studios were planned. The club was open to any student with an interest in art. with no obligation to perfect attendance but stressed a serious attitude toward the creation and appreciation of

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

"Hold that pose!" Anyone interested in photography this year was fortunate enough to have the expertise and the advise of Ms. Marsh and Mr. Paula at his disposal, as well as the well-equipped MHS darkroom. Making color prints from slides, experimenting with infrared film and new techniques in developing were just a few of this years' projects. The Photography Club gives interested students the opportunity to increase their knowledge of photography and to develop their darkroom skills.

THISTLE AND BRIDGE

The Thistle, MHS' literary magazine, is published biannually by its student staff. The Thistle got off to a quick start this year, sponsoring a poetry contest in December. The Thistle publishes science fiction, poetry, short stories, essays, and various student-produced artwork. Advised by Ms. Plume, the editors include David Kelley, Hilary Young, Brian Aylward, Terri Coates, Lynda Walsh, Laura Wessling, Marjorie Campbell, Robert Smith, Martha Murphy, Linda Marshall, Tom Sheehan, and Beth Goldman.

LATIN

Yes Virginia, there really is a Latin Club. There has not been a Latin Club at MHS for a few years, but some interested students decided to form one. After much searching, the club finally found an advisor. Although off to a slow start, plans were underway for a Roman Slave auction, a Roman banquet, a trip to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and a possible Roman excursion.

ITALIAN

The Italian Club has sought to realize two important goals: to acquaint students with the language, and cultural aspects of Italy, and to provide an entertaining series of events for its members. In accordance with these objectives, the club plans a trip to Italy once every three years (the next in the spring in 1980), and visits to museums, Italian film festivals, sponsors dinner parties and carol singing. Finally, a special round of applause is due to the club advisor Mrs. Nuz-70

BRITISH TRAVEL CLUB

Going places . . . The British Travel Club is now in its tenth year. The club was formed to promote the study of the literature, history and art of the British Isles. At the end of the year, many of the members will travel to Scotland and England.

PEP CLUB

Raider Pride Runs Deep . . . This year the Pep Club got started earlier than usual. Beginning in August, eager members got together to discuss ways to arouse school spirit. The first job was to enliven the blank, white walls of the cafe. Immediately the girls began drawing, cutting and painting decorations to help all the sports teams get psyched for their winning seasons ahead.

Ms. O'Brien soon joined the girls to help organize and plan various activities including the Thanksgiving Day Pep Rally and annual candy sale. The Melrose High School Pep Club once again succeeded in their goal this year - to encourage enthusiasm and spirit in everyone.

Never forget: Staying up all night, "Back door, please," "We better hurry, it's getting light out," "Who are all these kids anyway?" "The tape isn't sticking," "What rhymes with Murph?" "We're taking the good guys!"

FIRSTROW (L to R): Miss O'Brien, A. DiMuzio, E. Cain, L. Grant, M. Shinay, D. DeAngelis, E. Cerretani, M. D'Arcangelo. SECOND ROW: M. Frechette, E. Batten, J. Leeman, L. Hickey, L. Ford, C. ¡Que pasa! . . . The club was off to a galloping start with an unbelievable turnout of 150 members. Dues and bake sales filled the treasury and the club reached its goal of two fifty-dollar scholarships. One will go to the most active club member and the other to the student with the highest Spanish academic standing.

The International Christmas party, Spanish dinners, and the great Spanish-French volleyball game rounded out a very full calendar. As you can see, the Spanish Club enjoys food and fun. Y tú?

"There will be a brief but important meeting of the French Club on Tuesday, September 19 in Rm. 330-6 at 2:30. New members are invited to attend."

It was from this humble beginning that the French Club embarked upon its most successful year ever. With over seventy enthusiastic members, the club kicked off the year with its traditional dessert party. Next came the volleyball game. The Spanish and French Clubs squared off on the court in the battle of the century. Tension grew and pride swelled. but when the smoke had finally cleared, "Les Français" had won, 19-7. A French Games Night and a French-Spanish softball game soon followed. A French movie, the International Christmas Party and the year-end banquet rounded out a iull year. Memories include the night at Masconomet, waving to Lisa, Stormin' Norman, FOOD!, Youth Center Activity, "brief meetings" killing the Spaniards . . . and, finally, one last hurral to Miss Pomeroy for putting up with it all.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

Again this year, the Modern Dance Club was available to all students. No previous dancing experience was necessary - just a desire to dance and an eagerness to work hard. Afternoon meetings were held every week in the dance room, where the members bent and stretched and reached for the stars: exercising and practicing various dance steps. This was all in preparation for the two annual shows in which the members choreographed their own dances. The first of these presentations, entitled 'Dance, Dance, Dance,' was given in December. This show included many different types of dance, such as jazz, ballet, and disco, set to a variety of music. The second show is planned for the spring. Ms. Puntoni advised this club, accompanied by: President, Diane Norton; Vice-President, Pam Boniauto; Secretary, Cheryl Case; Treasurer, Lisa Limongelli; and Publicity Chairperson, Nancy Crovo.

IMPRINT

The "Imprint" offers MHS students a valuable opportunity to get involved in school activities. The Imprint, published monthly, is entirely student-run. Even if a student is not interested in writing, there are plenty of other facets of the newspaper he or she can work on. By reporting on the various happenings about MHS, the Imprint fosters communication between students and faculty. New opinions, relevant ideas that's what the Imprint is all about.

CHORUS

The MHS chorus, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Messina, could be found nearly everywhere. Performances for Rotary, senior citizens, nursing homes, and, of course, the Christmas Vesper program highlighted the year. This year, the Administration arranged for the chorus to perform for the student body. This was the first such assembly ever held in the new high school.

Although there were only fifty members this year, spirit was at an all-time high. As soon as the Christmas vacation ended, work then began for the Spring Concert. The lasting memories include: "Cute means bowlegged!", every eye, "I'll wait.", "There she is, Miscellaneous!", "Do we really have to wear those gross things?", Christmas carolling, ttttttt, "Which one is that?", "Did I tell you that you look nice today? Well, I lie a lot.", "If you know anyone that plays the piano?", and, of course, Papa Penuche...

DRAMA

The Melrose High Drama Club completed its first year under its new advisor, Mrs. Cornelia Belliveau. Led by the sole senior Bill Sitcawitch, this was the most successful season in recent history. "The Night of January Sixteenth," a courtroom drama involving a murder trial was performed in the fall and a comedy is planned for the March show. In addition, the Drama Club competed in the annual Boston Globe Drama Competition. Both the actors and the stage crew deserve recognition for their fine performances.

JAZZ ROCK

The Jazz-Rock Ensemble provides an outlet for the talent of superior musicians and at the same time provides the community with an exceptional jazz-pop playing group. The ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Frank DiGiacomo, performs at many concerts during the course of the year. The group remembers . . . Austria's Cafe Corso, every Wednesday at 5:00 p.m., "Trumpets, stand up!!", "Saxes, up at J!", 208, JR. Papa's after practice, mutes, "Don't kill yourselves.", "Try to get here on time, guvs!", "Get through this and then I'll let you all go home.", "Let's take it slooooow", "You're wasting time!", "Hey! You got your car??"

JAZZMATAZZ

Few people are aware of the existence of the Jazzmatazz, Melrose High's vocal jazz group. The members, chosen through auditions by the advisor, perform both jazz and popular music throughout the city. As the club was only formed last May, much growth is expected. The seniors can never forget . . . the gazebo, Prince, red and black, "Can we add our own choreography?", "As you walk down that lonesome road, remember that love is a many-splendored thing.", "But we only know three songs!", and most of all, Mr. Messina, who encouraged us and made it all possible

SCRABBLE

T'll challenge you! If you get to use lobotomous, then I'll use flibitorious!" After much practice, some of the players have reached a 200-plus game score, equivalent to the vocabulary of a Ph.D. in English! In the future, the club plans to compete interscholastically, then on to the nationals! But for the moment, enjoying an intense hour of concentration is exhilarating.

MOUNTAINEERING

The Mountaineering Club, now in its second year, is a club for those who enjoy learning new skills. Rappelling, rock climbing, hiking, and camping are just a few of the things that the club has undertaken. Led by advisors Mr. Trubisz and Mr. Paula, the club has travelled throughout Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Mountainerring is an exciting club for those who enjoy a challenge.

CHESS CLUB

This was a frustrating season for the chess team. With a small membership, the team opened with disappointing losses to some of the league's major powers. These early defeats and a heartbreaking tie with Masconomet Regional left the chessmen mentally deflated for part of the season. They picked up the pieces, rebounded gallantly and earned themselves a respectable mark for the season. Though they are not quite ready to take on Korchnoior or Spassky, the team takes a special pride in the fact that they alone can tell their pawns from their elbows. They can't forget . . . Salem ceilings, fianchettos and the King's Indian, St. Mary's 5-0, en passant, Four Knights, team chess, mate in a move, "Want a draw?" "Sure!," Lynn English double header, P-R4, P-K4, R-R3, BXRETC, Triton and Bishop Fenwick, dark green boards, best clocks in the state, Simultaneous with J.C., "Touch move!," "Do we HAVE to take notation?," "GIRLS?," And special thanks to Mr. Morrow, the coach who made it all possible.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Theodore Leutz, has spent the past year performing a varied repetoire of music. The busy concert schedule began with the Christmas Vespers. The orchestra performed seasonal music for many civic groups throughout both Melrose and Malden. In addition, senior Neil Schultes was chosen to play in the violin section of the prestigious Northeast District Regional Orchestra. The MHS musical, "South Pacific," was the orchestra's next major performance. The season culminated with the Spring Concert.

STRATEGIC GAMES

The Strategic Games Club is designed to challenge the mental abilities of its' members while providing recreation. An active imagination is the most valuable asset in playing strategic games. Led by President David Martin and Advisor Mr. Hodgkins, the club has rewritten and relived history from world wars to inter-galactic skirmishes. Favorite memories include . . . The new twits, a herd of torpedoes, "That's random.", "It's a Paladin! Kill it! Kill it!", the Franco-American alliance, "Surrender and die!!"

AVIATION

The Aviation Club is comprised of those students interested in aviation. The club meets regularly to discuss subjects such as piloting, navigating, and ground crews with the assistance of various guest speakers. Trips to Logan Airport, Nassau Air Traffic Control, and Pease Air Force Base are planned.

AUTO

The Auto Club, under the direction of Mr. Haley, is a small but enthusiastic group. Its members range from true auto-lovers to those students interested in simple car maintenance. This year the club raised money to offset the cost of a car engine to be used to familiarize members with its functions.

WEIGHTS

FIRST ROW (L to R): S. Bosley, R. Rich, B. MacIndewar, A. Fiandaca, H. Williams, B. Kelley, M. Driscoll, C. Hurley, Mr. Falkenstein. SECOND ROW: M. Dolan, T. Hardy, K. Pitts, J. Foley, D. Burnell, C. Dotoli, S. Morris, S. Lamarche, D. Tully, J. Ball, S. Keohan, D. Puleo, D. Doherty, T. Knight, J. Musto, T. Prior.

Once again, weightlifting was offered to anyone interested in working out after school. The well-equipped weight room allowed the students to exercise nearly every muscle while shedding a few pounds and toning their bodies. These strenuous workouts were well worth the effort- just survey their fine physiques!

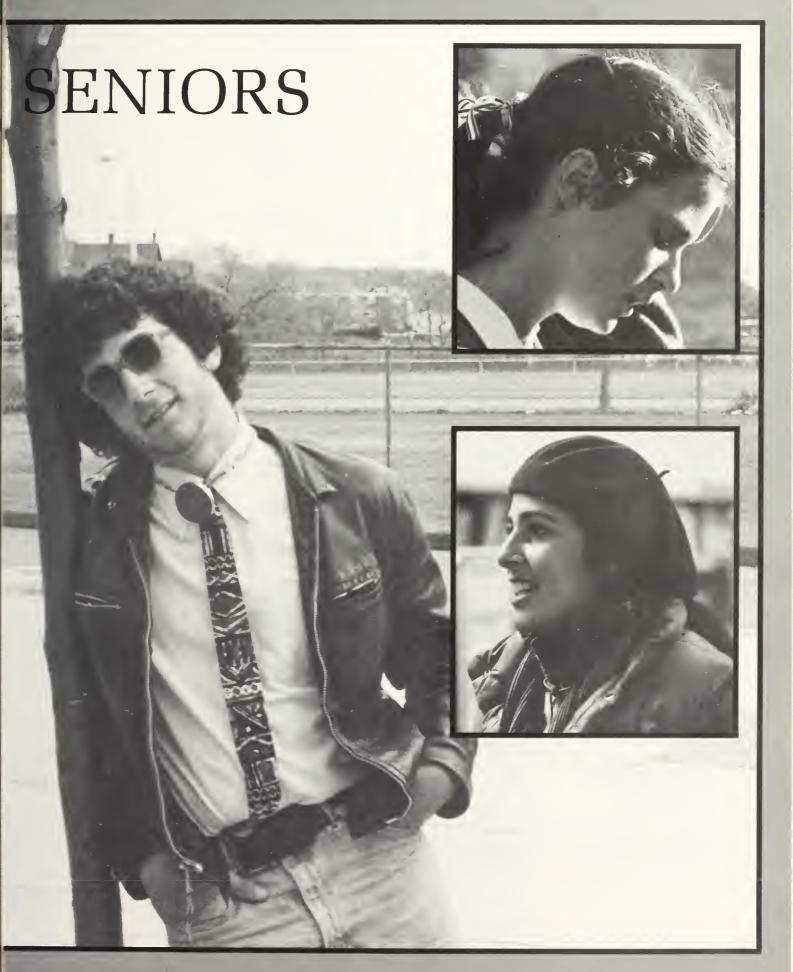

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: "Oh, I wish it was Friday!" - P. Curry "You've got the cutest little baby face!" - B. Simpson and R. Lux "You're kidding!" - K. Nyquist "Why me?" - M. Frechette "We made it!" - C. Teller.

A FACE IN THE CROWD

At first glance, Melrose High may seem to be a place where a crowd of people assemble from 8:00-2:30, five days a week, nine months a year. Yet if we look closely enough, we see that this profusion is comprised of 1500 unique individuals. Every one is a "superstar" in his own right; each gifted in a different manner. It is this mélange of talent, temperament, and personality that gives MHS its flavor, its identity. Our faces make the crowd, and it is the crowd which is Melrose High School.

JUNIOR PROM

You Are The Sunshine Of My Life

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS

Athlete . . . Aching muscles, pain, practice, practice. Race the clock. Do it again. Split the seconds, coordinate muscles, push, push. Perfect the stroke, perfect the strategy. There are those who say that the only winner is the athlete who places first.

All America loves a winner, but there should be no stigma attached to losing if one has given his best.

Although being number one is every athlete's dream, there is another kind of winner, perhaps dearer to a coach's heart than all the number ones combined. This winner is the athlete who works hard but never quite reaches the pinnacle of success. He never gives up, is never defeated though he knows defeat. He is like you and me, always trying but never quite making it, determined, human . . . forever humble.

1. Richard Corbett follows the bouncing ball. 2. Jane Reardon and Jean Gill 3. Field Hockey 4. Matt Bennett 5. Pat Keating 6. The Field Hockey Team 7. A football tackle 8. Soccer huddle

DQ WHAT COMES

1. Mary Alfano sails the deep. 2. Eric Kenworthy cruises on the Fellsway. 3. Jean Gill gives us a knowing smile. 4. Micheal Coombs, Sean Fitzgerald, and David Vangel hang around before school. 5. Denise Swallow sits around during her lunch period. 6. Gail Sarni - engrossed in her homework. 7. Sue Conn rides again!

NATURALLY

High School is a place for serious decisions that affect much. New freedoms are explored, strange experiences are savored, plans for the future are made.

Despite the big choices and big problems that confront us, we must remember that it is during high school that we learn to live. We learn to enjoy individuality and to stand by our principles and our convictions. A new pleasure is derived from others and we see ourselves in a new light. We laugh at the now-frivolous things that once seemed all important. We learn to laugh at ourselves. We grow. We mature. We live. And we move on.

1. All ready for inspection, sir! - David Voci 2. Lunch bag A is softer than lunch bag B, discovers Sandy Santo. 3. All roads lead to. . . . 4. Steve Barry takes a well deserved break. 5. Ann Gantreau examines life through a microscope. 6. Beth Patterson seems to say, "Don't hassle me!"

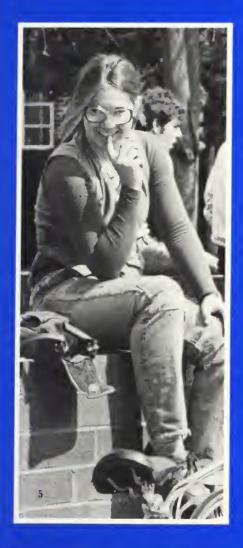

1. Rita Bernhardt and Sue Butler have a Monday morning hangover 2. TADA! It's Lillian Hong! 3. Katarina Gustafsson imitates a "guldfisk" 4. Carla White has the answers! 5. Shall I do it? - Roseann Zorbas 6. Kevin McCaleb and Billy Filaretos 7. Say what? - Billy Fish 8. Clyde Showalter and Rhonda Sorice hold up the wall.

CANDIDS . . . Here And There

Our primary reason for attending Melrose High School is to prepare ourselves for the life that lies ahead. High school does, however, have a lighter side. Getting to know one another, sharing good times together, learning more about ourselves. . . These things too are important and they assume their rightful places amongst the chemistry books and term papers of our lives.

PAULINE THERIAULT

159 Upham St.

PAUL W. DALY JR. 1961 - 1978 Paul first came into our lives when he moved to 10 Worth St. and attended the Ripley School. It was here that our bonds of friendship first began. Walking to and from school, eating lunch together, skating at Swain's Pond, and playing hide and seek at Ricca's were all part of our daily life then. It was through childhood fun that our friendships grew stronger creating, our intimate group of friends.

Paul, better known as "Ducka," started many trends among us. Wearing Melrose gym shorts, high Converse sneakers and a baseball cap was his usual summer attire. Paul's "Go wild!," "Leave me alone!" and "Get away!" soon became our most popular expressions. Soon, many of us sported similar attire.

The summer was Paul's favorite time of year. Many a warm summer's day was spent with his cousin Dana at the family's cottage in Ossipee, New Hampshire.

When he wasn't in Ossipee during the summer, times were spent around Richdale. There would be sessions in the morning held at the "First Level" or the "Log." In the afternoon D.P. would get his daily workout of calisthenics ending with a neighborhood game of stickball at the Chapel. The nights would start out at the "Path" then on to the "Square" on his Motobecane, ending with Worldie's, the Chapel, or J.P.'s porch.

September came and the days to follow were the saddest and the emptiest days of our lives. We lost a good friend who'll never be replaced. There's a spot in our hearts that will always be empty. But we can always remember the good times that we spent with Paul . . . there were many.

OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION

PCT, Cosmo, Co-op Ed. These foreign-sounding words are the popular names for some popular alternative programs here at MHS.

The Patient Care Technician program is held in conjunction with the Melrose-Wakefield Hospital. The program is designed to prepare students for entry level positions in the allied health professions. The students study Anatomy and Physiology at Melrose High and spend three hours daily at the hospital, practicing their skills in the clinic and attending classes at the hospital.

Cosmetology is a two year program for students interested in beauty-related careers. The students must complete 1000 hours of training at the Melrose Beauty Academy before they take a state exam that entitles them to undertake a one year apprenticeship and then obtain certification.

Cooperative education is a paid work experience. The students are placed with local firms that give them the opportunity to apply the skills they have learned in high school. Secretarial work, data processing, food and nutrition, automotive, carpentry, electronics, graphic arts and mechanical drawing are just a few of the fields in which MHS students are working.

Some students attend both the Vocational School and Melrose High. They study their academic subjects at MHS in the morning and attend vocational classes in the afternoon.

These educational alternatives work well for all involved. They provide personal rewards to the students themselves and provide willing, capable employees for many local businesses.

THE ARTS

Talent abounds in Melrose High School. We have sports stars and great scientists, students who can write anything and students who can solve any math problem that is put in front of them. Interspersed among these students are those who show promise in the Arts. The Arts cover everything from drawing and painting to singing and photography. We are fortunate enough to have dedicated faculty members and the best of facilities to develop the skills of these students to their fullest potential. They are encouraged to grow and expand their horizons to become the very best they can be.

GIRLS SWIM TEAM

Co-Captain Jean Bushee, Coach Whitworth, and Co-Captain Robin Lux

"You mean you take your glasses off before you swim!" - Sue Butler

ABOVE: "Maybe if I close my eyes it will go away!" -Kim Nyquist. RIGHT: "Help! I can't swim!" -Lynda Lynall

Go back, go back . . . Many people will reminisce about the 1978 MHS girls swim team. Lead by co-captains - League All-Stars Jean Bushee and Robin Lux, Coach Dick Whitworth's girls shattered all but one team record. The seniors led the way with Kim Nyquist at breastroke, Linda Botte in backstroke, Lynda Lyall in sprint freestyles, Sue Butler in the 500 freestyle, Sonya Johnson in the long freestyle event, and Rita Bernhard in the relay.

At 5-6-1, the Swim Team was one point from a .500 season, and certainly on top as far as spirit and enthusiasm. Jean Bushee took sixth place in diving, Robin Lux placed fifth in the 200 freestyle and eighth in the 100 freestyle, and Sheila Fennell placed as thirteenth alternate in the backstroke and the 200 individual medley for a total of 36 points in the EMASS Championships. Diver Jean Bushee became the first team member to score in the State Championships with a sensational 4th place finish. Besides lots of hard work, the girls remember . . . a Medford win, Bodeen's hi ho, cheek prints, States, 6:57, Easterns. . .

FIELD HOCKEY

Kathy McGee

Coach Johnson and Captain Donna DeAngelis

"Are we supposed to run a fast mile or jog four miles today?" This dreadful question was frequently asked on summer mornings as the girls prepared for the 1978 season. Although the workout involved much time and sacrifice, the field hockey girls proved that each mile was well worth it.

The Raiders finished their season with a 7-4-2 record; a successful record and one to be proud of. Although they narrowly missed the 1978 state tournament, this season undoubtedly will help to prepare the girls for next year's finals.

SOCCER

The MHS Soccer team suffered from a season of ups and downs. The team went from a 3-1 pre-season record to a disappointing first half, but then rallied for a 4-5 second half. Captain Mike McManus and Coach Poulos provided the team with lots of expert advice and encouragement.

Senior lettermen on the team we re Capt. McManus, Dan Witkowski, Ed Austras, and Lee Maserian. Junior lettermen included Tom Murphy and Mike Maccario. Valuable Seniors included Dick Corbett, Bob Ceccherini, Neil Donovan, Glenn Olson, Andy Strileckis, Peter Sheridan, Ed Gear, Peter Sheridan and Tom Dunn. They made it tough for their opponents and made a spirited showing.

The team remembers: Drew dives, "Why are you walking?," shower clogs, Ladeeo, "You nummies!" and Checka, Maddog, Spaceman's Third Hand, Eddie O., Weeds Doctor, Itchie, Drew, Polish Rifle, Muhammad, Studley, Artman, Stricka, and Waybos . . . Good

FALL CROSS COUNTRY TRACK

Captain John Molvar and Coach MacIntire led the Melrose High Cross-Country Team over hill and dale to a 3-6 season. The record, however, is misleading; the Raiders lost two heartbreakers to Winchester and Wakefield, but managed to win over Stoneham, Belmont, and Burlington.

Sophomore Jim Mahoney covered the three-mile Mount Hood course in 16.52, shattering a long-standing MHS record. He was a regular point-getter for the team. Seniors John Molvar, Rich Downey, Jim Sullivan, Kevin DeYoung, Mark McGuire, junior Mark Lamantina and sophomores Ron Kearns and David Yanetti piled on more points for Melrose. Mahoney placed 16th and Molvar captured 35th in the Mass. Cross Country Finals. Lamantina grabbed a 14th place finish in the Middlesex League.

Junior Andrea Hemingway led the girls. Hot on her heels were seniors Tracey LePage, Linda McNamera and Barbara McKinley. Hemingway, LePage, and McNamera were chosen League All-Stars as were their male counterparts Molvar and Mahoney.

GOLF

Me rose has always had a strong golf team, and this year was no exception. Although the turnout was small, the team was well balanced and very competitive.

This was a unique season for the MHS golf team. The traditionally spring stort was played in the fall due to a change in league rules. The change worked to the Raiders' advantage, for the players were well-practiced from the summer, and they enjoyed better weather and less crowded courses.

Although the team was offered stiff but petition, the team enjoyed a winning season. Roll on Red Raiders!

Champion is the status that every team strives for, and champion is exactly the word to describe the Melrose High Boys' Swim Team. Past teams have come close, but this year's team was tops in the Middlesex League. Led by a steadfast group of senior swimmers, the team also was able to rely on support from a talented group of underclassmen. Fielding strong swimmers in both swimming and diving events, the team enjoyed a season in which they experienced only one loss. Highlights of the season included record-breaking performances and a close run to the finish in which Melrose emerged the champions.

The team gets a little advice from Coach Grant.

FOOTBALL

The mile, double sessions, "Frank's," meetings, Natick scrimmage, the Keg, more scrimmages, victory over Malden, beating Belmont, the downfall at Burlington, just forget Woburn, all washed out at Reading, one more to go after Watertown, and a delicious, snowy, Thanksgiving win over Wakefield.

Those are just a few of the memories that will always remain with the 1978 Melrose High School gridmen. The wild and crazy Raiders, led by Captain Matt Bennett, began their season with two easy wins over Malden and Belmont. They entered the third game against Burlington rated 5th in the state. After dominating the entire game, the Raider defense could not keep the Red Devils off the board. A 14-14 tie ruined the chances of an un-un season. Injuries and disillusionment precluded the team from winning again until Watertown, late in the season. As it was in the beginning, it was in the end. On Thanksgiving Day the Raiders got back in the swing for the finale against Wakefield and ate up the warriors 24-6.

There were many individual highlights of the season that deserve to be recognized. Always in the spotlight was Capt. Bennett, a Middlesex League All-star, who was rated 4th in Division 1 scoring and rushed for a total of 1022 yards. Defensive end Paul Hirschfeld was named to the Globe All-Scholastic team. Middlesex League All-Stars were Matt Bennett, Paul Hirschfeld, and Gregg Kelley. The team's unsung hero was undoubtedly Rick DellaPasqua, who seldom received the glory his spirited efforts deserved. Along with Coach Hoague, Mike D'Agostino, Scott Lloyd, Gerry Shay, Kevin Milano, Mike Murphy and Jan Witkowski contributed significantly to make the 1978 season a memorable one.

FIRST ROW (L to R): Assistant Coach DeTeso, T. Hickey, S. Lloyd, J. Witkowski, K. Milano, M. Murphy, P. Hirschfeld, M. Bennett, M. D'Agostino, G. Kelley, G. Shay, R. DellaPasqua, B. McLean, D. # AND MAJORETTES

With a multiplicity of colorful routines, the MHS tumblers flipped and twisted their way through every halftime show. Co-Captains Ginny Mulcahy and Denise Cann led the team through their impressive routines. Tumblers will always remember Brunches, Bus rides, SNOW!, White socks, Reading, Corsages, Rallies, "Don't eat with your mouth full!" "Figures Jean would mess it up!," "Two minutes - Where's Ginny?," "Margaret, how's the dirt taste?," "Hide me, I've got a W!," Only 10 minutes to the half, Shereen."

FIRST ROW (L to R): Co-Captain D. Cann, M. Sundquist, C. Case, E. Hayes, J. Bushee, Co-Captain, G. Mulcahy. SECOND ROW: J. Valerio, B. Morrison, S. Barry, S. Olsen, D. Campbell, J. Hickey.

The MHS majorettes were always on hand to perform a variety of intricate routines during every football game. Led by head majorette Karen Vardaro, the girls twirled and spun their batons to the lively beat of the band music. Their long hours of hard work and dedication paid off because the majorettes looked great and really added a lot to those halftime shows.

The girls remember: Catherine's jump, "Excuse me, please!," "Slow down Martha," "Speedy!," "Pick it up Mary-Jo!," "Where are the feeds!," "Don't stick out your tongue, Joanne," "Jeanie, stop flirting!," "Is Pam coming?," "Speak up Marie and where's your boot drop?," "Tweet, tweet, Dana," "I'm captain, so shut up, smile, and do it my way," twirling in the rain, Thanksgiving in the snow, SMILE! "Where's the nail polish?"

FIRST ROW: K. Vardaro (Captain) SECOND ROW: M. Murphy, G. Driscoll, C. Pappas THIRD ROW: M. Nugent, D. Navarro, J. Copeland, J. Ward.

"Any questions? . . . You, in the white shirt!"

WRESTLING TEAM

Co-Captains Ed Austras and Gregg Kelley led the MHS Wrestling Team to the Middlesex League crown. The Raiders went undefeated for the second year in a row and have captured 12 of the past 13 league titles.

The 1978-1979 season got off to an impressive start with a decisive 27-18 win over Burlington, considered the top competitor for league honors. Six more wins boosted the Raiders' record to 7-0.

In non-league competition, Melrose boasted an 8-2 record. They took first place honors in the prestigious Lowell Tournament, edging out both Lowell and Quincy.

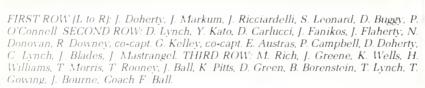

Both Co-Captains Austras and Kelley finished the season undefeated, as did junior Tom Rooney. Other point-getters included seniors Jim Blades. Paul Hirschfeld, Rich Downey, John Flaherty, John Fanikos and Chris Lynch.

After the season's end, Melrose competed in the Lowell for which Melrose was proud!

BOYS' BASKETBALL

This year, the Melrose High Basketball Team was taken over by a new coach, Mr. John O'Neil. The boys practiced for many long, hard hours, but few victories resulted. The season opened with two handy wins, and things looked good for the Raiders. But this early hope was soon dulled and losses were plentiful.

Fans and spectators could always expect a fine performance from Captain Matt Bennett. Captain Bennett was always counted on to keep spirit high and to score plenty of points. The Raider talent was augmented by seniors Bruce Birtwell, Mark Trulli, Jan Witkowski, John Vieno, Bob Wolpe, and juniors David Snook, Greg Strileckis, and Carl Sharrio.

The season was plagued by many very close losses. Despite their record this year, the basketball team never completely lost its spirit, and was always ready to take on any opponents.

FIRST ROW (L to R): B. Wolpe, J. Witkowski, Capt. M. Bennett, M. Trulli, B. Birtwell, J. Vieno. SECOND ROW: Coach O'Neil, T. Karelas, D. Snook, C. Sharrio, G. Strileckis.

HOCKEY

A couple of losses - a couple of ties - and an awful lot of wins. Such was the story of the 1978-1979 Melrose High School. Hockey. Team. A major power in the highly competitive Middlesex League, the team reeled off six wins in rapid succession before falling victim to powerful Burlington. Led by seniors Dave Rose, Steve Lloyd, Andy Brickley, Paul Connelly, Captain Scott Charlton, and Steve Crovo as well as Junior Larry Kimball, the Red Raiders showed great strength on both offense and defense. Goal after goal was scored, and Melrose always seemed to have more than its share of league-leading players. The team met stiff challenges from Woburn, Lexington, and upstart Reading, and showed outstanding power and strategy in every case. Despite heart breaking losses and ties, the team was able to finish the season in third place.

Ginny Mulcahy executes her beam routine.

The 1978-1979 season was a memorable one for the Gymnastics Team. Led by Captain Ginny Mulcahy and Coach Taffe, the team finished the season with a 5-5 record. It was a building year. There were seven sophomores on the team, all of whom promise to add even more valuable points next year. Senior Jean Bushee starred as the all-arounder. Her floor routine and vault were nearly unbeatable, and her beam and bar routines were equally impressive. Senior Denise Cann specialized in the uneven parallel bars. Although she broke her foot at the end of the season, she came out as one of the three top MHS performers. Captain Mulcahy worked the beam, adding style and spirit to her exceptional performances.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Captain McGee trys it soccer style.

"McGee's Trees" were certainly in tull blossom this year. They had one of the best defenses in the league. The spirit and dedication of Coach Janet Johnston and the determination and perserverance of Captain Kathy McGee made the team one of the best around.

The seven seniors on the team always displayed true Raider pride. They kept their heads high and fought their hardest in every battle. The team will always remember H + S; T.R.P.; "Did Belmont win?"; Wa Wa B; off in a jiff; cardiac kids; "Shh . . . " Monique the shriek; LEFC; "McGee, watch those elbows"; "Holly, come on H!"; "Deb, Italians do it better"; "Pat, what's new in China?"; "Kathy, a brush and lip gloss"; "Donna, think big!";

King, THIRD ROW: K. Donahue, M. Azevedo, D. O'Leary, D. Belcher, P. Atwood, R. Corbett, T. LePage, B. McKinlay.

Despite much hard work and exhausting practices, the Winter Track Team turned in a disappointing season. Though their efforts were hampered by poor weather and the lack of an indoor track, the team still managed to turn in some exceptional individual performances. Captain John Molvar bested his previous time in the two mile run with a time of 10:25. Junior Andrea Hemingway shattered three MHS records in the 1000 yard run, the mile, and the two mile runs. Gathering valuable points in their respective events were Seniors Jim Sullivan, Tracey LePage, Barbara McKinley, Dave Belcher, Chuck Hurley, Peter Atwood, Dick Corbett, and Jim Clary. Junior Mike Maccario garnered six firsts to become the top point-getter on the team. Junior Dave Parece did his part, coming up with three first place finishes.

Senior Citizens' Christmas Party

Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Frank Connolly

"We wish you a Merry Christmas . . . "

This past December, Melrose High School put out the welcome mat to the senior set. For just a penny, any senior citizen could come and enjoy the festivities. Teachers and students coordinated the event and everything ran smoothly.

Food was donated by local merchants and both students and faculty baked every kind of dessert imaginable. Christmas cookies, brownies, and fruitcake tempted even the dieters in the group.

The festivities were emceed by MHS's own Mr. Frank Connolly, who sent the room pealing with laughter with his never-ending repetoire of stories. The MHS Brass Ensemble played many Christmas carols, the chorus performed some seasonal selections, the German Club did intricate German folk dances, the Modern Dance Club did excerpts from their fall show, and the Jazzmatazz sang a variety of pieces. The multi-talented Mr. Morse played his famous banjo and sang songs.

The event was proclaimed a huge success by all involved. The cooperation between faculty and students was a tribute to MHS, and it is hoped that similar events will be held in the future.

International Christmas Party

Maura Frechette - "¿Hay un insecto en mi sopa?"

Rob Frasca, fearless leader of the French Club

Larry Boyle - "And you can't tell me Santa's supposed to fit in this thing!"

The annual International Christmas Party was held in December, 1978. The French, Spanish, Italian, and German Clubs hosted the Foreign Language Department teachers and Mr. LaRosa at this yearly event.

The German Club performed traditional German folk dances dressed in authentic German costumes. The French Club performed a hilarious skit with club members portraying French-speaking barnyard animals. The Italian Club presented a skit involving an Italian family's purchase of a rather dubious Christmas tree. The Spanish Club led everyone in Spanish Bingo.

Then came the food. And more food and more food . . . Manicotti, ravioli, fondue, onion soup, French bread, arroz con pollo, tacos, pilaf . . . The food was delicious and there was plenty of it.

After dinner, everyone joined in singing international Christmas carols.

Joe Iacoviello and Linda Botte - "But we got the recipe from our French book!"

Robin Lux, Annette DiMuzio anticipate their first tacos.

Gail Sarni - "And I couldn't believe it . . . and then she said . . ."

YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY BABY

There you are Your parents saw you as a future Nobel P:ize winner, the first woman president; the next Broadway star Unfortunately for you, baby, neither Mommy nor Daddy nor the United States had much faith in the saying "Ignorance is bliss" so you were shuttled off into the real world to face the harsh realities of public school. In a short period of time, your ABC's became Algebra, Biology, and Chemistry. School became a form of legal torture, and you soon learned that students did not come under the articles of the Geneva Convention. Term paper after term paper was assigned, and the ever-mounting workload made it difficult to retain youthful optimism.

Dr. Dentons have given way to Levis and alligator shirts. Careening through the corridors has replaced crawling in kttchen corners. Your parents, once delighting in your ever-expanding vocabulary, now complain that they can never get you to be quiet. Once eager to help with homework, they now stare in disbelief when you ask "Does negative reinforcement have a detrimental effect...?"

reinforcement have a detrimental effect . . ?"

It's a big world out there. Rock 'n roll has replaced 'Rockabye Baby,' and quantum leaps beat hopscotch any day. Yes, you've come a long way, baby!

"See my tan?"

"Has Ziegfeld called yet?"

Puppy Love

"Hiya, Duke!"

"Are you going to let me drive today?"

"I'd love to go!"

"Now that's my kind of souffle!"

"Isn't there a law against child labor?"

"I'm stuffed!"

"It's my first formal"

"I have naturally curly hair."

"Anything for a laugh!"

"Cheryl Tiegs, eat your heart out!"

"You didn't have to kick sand in my face!"

"Friends, Romans, and Countrymen, lend me your ear!"

"Pull up my drawers, ma!"

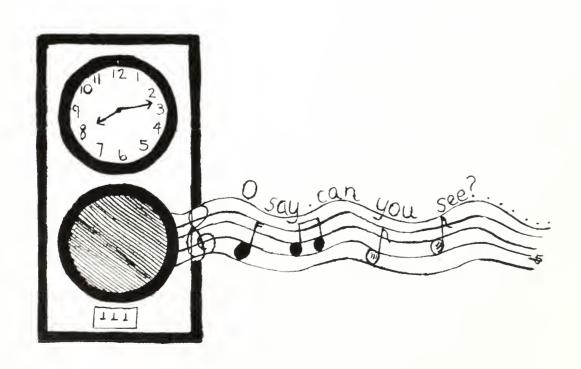

"Help! My hand's stuck!"

The Class of 1979's - Believe It Or Not!

An ordinary weekday - the faithful are once again sealed into their homerooms at precisely 8:10. As usual, the homeroom teachers plead for everyone to quiet down. Suddenly, the morning newscaster breaks forth into melodious song. Never has the national anthem been sung quite like this. Everyone is galvanized into silence. For once, the school is quiet.

That's just one of the many strange and wonderful experiences of the class of '79. Remember when the lights went out? They went on again about five minutes after we were all officially dismissed. At least the generator had the common courtesy to wait until we'd all left the building. Who can forget the day we were let out at two o'clock to watch the Yankees-Sox playoffs? And how about that January day when the no-school announcements were finally aired at 7:45? After braving the hurricane-like winds and torrential rains reminiscent of Noah's Great Flood, you got to slosh all the way back home, only to spend the day bailing out the basement. And how about your reaction when you found out that we really were going to have mid-years? To top it off, we didn't even have snow on January 22, thus becoming the first class to actually have to go through with the blasted exams on time. Ah, yes, how can we forget?

INVARIABLE

Children laugh, old men sigh Sweethearts smile, parents try Snowflakes drift forever

downward.

Cities advance, towns retreat Boys enlist, soldiers defeat Snowflakes drift forever

downward.

Early morning, end of day
Each man goes his separate way
And the snowflakes drift forever
downward.

Final Analysis

The last hurrah . . .
The last goodbye . . .
We throw our caps
And by and by
We leave the field
And go our ways.
Yes life begins
And ends today.
